

Contingencies

Last Modified on 02/12/2019 10:55 am NZDT

Separate contingency lines should only be included where you are unable to predict actual costs. If you include a contingency then you must explain in the budget description what it will cover and why you are unable to predict the actual costs. Contingencies should not exceed 5% for the term of your budget.
